INSPIRED—NATURALLY

Since first appearing on fine jewelry scene over 40 years ago, Robert Lee Morris is now recognized as the leader of the art jewelry movement. He is known for his high-profile collaborations with leading fashion designers, including Karl Lagerfeld, Calvin Klein and Michael Kors. Beginning in July, Robert Lee Morris' jewelry will be available in the Twin Cities, exclusively at Scheherazade Jewelers.

Futura, part of Morris' Fall 2010 line, is crafted from the highest quality sterling silver. The collection revisits the curved, wedge theme he created in the 1970s, updated with a 21st century twist. Each wedge is bisected by a flat plane, creating stunning pieces that blend architectural lines and soft organic forms. The collection includes gamma discs, classic alpha cuffs, and Morris' signature knuckle ring.

In a stunning contrast, Morris' Mid-Summer Night's Dream line is inspired by soft flower petals and vegetation on a forest floor. Reflecting the tone of Shakespeare's play, the jewelry combines enchanting labradorite, blue chalcedony, deep smoky quartz and grey moonstones, all set in exquisitely carved silver bezels.

Available only at Scheherazade, Robert Lee Morris' Fall 2010 collections consist of necklaces, bracelets, rings and earrings. Prices range from $95 to $1,295.
